Correctional Health Services

Providing quality, cost-effective integrated healthcare services to correctional facilities in Maine

- Mental Health, Substance Abuse & Co-Occurring Treatment

A 38 year history of providing services to individuals and more than 20 years of experience in providing treatment of co-occurring disorders in an institutional setting.

- Medical Sick-Call, Nursing and On-Call Services

Efficient and responsive use of medical staff to provide quality care at the lowest cost.

- Discharge Planning & Day Reporting Agreements

Proven experience working with facilities to expand and enhance services that support the successful transition of inmates back into the community.

- Community Provider OutReach

C&C is a knowledgeable and collaborative partner who takes the lead to strengthen relationships with other providers in order to reduce gaps in service, eliminate redundancies, and improve outcomes for facilities, inmates and communities.

- Utilization Management

Controlled use of off-site services based on ongoing analysis and preventative on-site care.

- Claims Processing Services

Claims coding and billing services available to provide potential cost savings.

- Continuous Quality Improvement

An agency-wide system of continuous quality improvement.

Crisis & Counseling Centers was recognized by the Co-Occurring Collaborative of Southern Maine as a Co-Occurring Center of Excellence. This award acknowledges Crisis & Counseling Centers' emphasis on providing integrated mental health and substance abuse treatment in all program areas.
